

The Dover Adult Learning Center of Strafford County (DALC) is looking for dedicated and talented individuals to serve on its board of directors.

We need your expertise in...

- Finance/Accounting
- Human Resources
- Marketing & Communication
- Manufacturing
- Technology
- and more

With Pride, The Dover Adult Learning Center...

...serves the second-largest adult literacy population in New Hampshire with 1200 to 1500 students from Strafford County and surrounding towns

...supports one of the largest GED and Adult High School Diploma programs in NH with more than 6000 graduates to date, and over 250 each year

...gives 2500 to 3000 adults in Strafford County a second chance, a fresh start and a new opportunity.

Do you want to give back to your community?

Do you want to join a professional, well-established board that is always looking for new talent and new ideas?

Do you want to volunteer your time for an organization that makes a real difference in the lives of individuals and families throughout Strafford County?

“I enjoy working with a dedicated group of volunteers that impact the ability of people to improve their lives.” Nick Skaltsis, Owner, Phoenix Asset Group, Inc.

“We are serious about our commitment but at the same time, we have fun.” Dennis Munson, Owner, Munson Plumbing and Heating

“The DALC Board generates ideas but also makes it happen.” Shenanne Tucker: Lawyer, Bouchard, Kleinman & Wright, P.A.

Board member selection process:

We will ask you to submit a resume and meet with a member of the governance committee.

Depending on the current needs of the board, you may be invited to attend a meeting, meet the board and introduce yourself.

If you are asked to serve and accept, you will attend orientation and begin serving your three-year term in September 2011.
